

Use “The Scene” to introduce “Seeing and Believing” the Young Teen Sunday school lesson for July 16, 2017. The lesson is found on page 43 of Young Teen Teacher by Standard Publishing.

“Everything I learned I learned from the movies.” —Audrey Hepburn

“Give them pleasure. The same pleasure they have when they wake up from a nightmare.”
—Alfred Hitchcock

—Anthony Burgess

“Film is not the art of scholars, but of illiterates.” —Werner Herzog

“We love films because they make us feel something. They speak to our desires, which are never small. They allow us to escape and dream and to gaze into the eyes that are impossibly beautiful and huge. They fill us with longing. But also, they tell us to remember; they remind us of life. Remember, they say, how much it hurts to have your heart broken.” —Nina LaCour

“If you were born with the ability to change someone’s perspective or emotions, never waste that gift. It is one of the most powerful gifts God can give—the ability to influence.” —Shannon L. Alder

“Movies touch our hearts and awaken our vision, and change the way we see things. They take us to other places, they open doors and minds. Movies are the memories of our lifetime, we need to keep them alive.”
—Martin Scorsese

“People go to the movies instead of moving.”
—Tennessee Williams

The quotes above were obtained from www.goodreads.com. As students arrive, give each of them a copy of the above quotes to read. Then discuss in this way:

Take one or two of these quotes that you find most interesting and talk about them with a few people around you. What does the quote mean? What is it saying about movies? Do you think it rings true or not? Why?

What do you like about movies? What do you not like about movies?

Do you think you can learn something about God or faith from watching movies? Can you only learn from Christian movies? Explain your answer.

We learn a lot through our eyes. Think of the images you can recall from your favorite TV shows and movies. God knows how much we learn by seeing. Today we’ll discover the powerful imagery He uses in the Bible to help us “see” eternal truth.
